

My Autobiography Poem Since 2012

Brandie

I am understanding, gentle, kind, and bold
Daughter of Danielle and Brandon with 5 siblings

I love music, reading, and watching sports

I've experienced fun road trips, family time, and good friends

Feared of being unsuccessful, loneliness, and getting injured

I've accomplished not catching COVID, new friendships, and getting into high school

Who wants to experience different foods, driving, and concerts

Resident of Detroit
Holmon
