

Poetry Analysis

Directions: Research, interpret, and analyze a poem of your choice. Answer the questions below, practice presenting your poem, and bring the literature to life. Submit your analysis with your poem.

1. Name the poet.

Lord Bryon

2. What is the title of the poem?

Nature is everywhere.

3. When was the poem published?

There is not a specific date.

4. Summarize the poem.

The poem is about nature, the way its so beautiful, the way we see animals, trees, and things that grow everywhere. We should always take care of it. Nature needs us.

5. Who is the intended audience of the poem?

The intended audience of the poem is anyone who reads it.

6. What is the mood of the poem?

Happy, cheerful, joy!

7. What is the purpose or objective of the poem?

The purpose is that nature does its parts by growing and giving food, so we should help take care of it as our parts of help.

8. What is the theme of the poem?

The theme is caring and showing love.

9. Why did you select this poem?

I selected this poem because I love going outside and looking at nature and its beauty.

10. Would you recommend this poem?

Yes, it is a really good poem.

POEM- Nature is everywhere. Nature is everywhere you go. Everything that lives and grows is nature, animals big and small. Nature is plants that grow so tall. Nature is beautiful in every way. Wonderful, exciting. And needs our care. So listen, learn and do your part to keep nature. Beautiful forever.